Government sponsored cooperative institutions in Delhi; and

(c) the reaction of Government for not implementing the orders on the subject and the steps taken to circulate those posts for filling up through right choices?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHRA RAJE): (a) Yes, Madam.

(b) and (c) The Department of Personnel O.M. No. 14017/71/89-Estt. (RR) dated 3rd October, 1989 provides that wherever the recruitment rules prescribe different sources of recruitment and where various categories of officers are eligible for being considered, the circulation of vacancies will be considered propoer only where ministry concerned ensures that all such categories are tapped simultaneously. Circulation of vacancies therefore, should not be confined to only one or two sources mentioned in the recruitment rules. The said O.M. however, provides that wherever employees of the PSU/ Autonomous Bodies and Non Secretariat officers are also eligible under the recruitment rules, the administrative Ministries/Department concerned should specifically request the Departments to circulate the vacancy to all such organisations with whom they are concerned so that the requirements of the recruitment rules are duly met. The procedure prescribed for filling up of posts by deputation is therefore required to be followed by the Ministries/ Departments concerned under whom such posts exist. This Department is therefore, not aware that the prescribed procedure is not being followed for filling up of various posts of General Manager, Managing Directors in the Government sponsored cooperative institutions in Delhi. Moreover, this information is not maintained centrally by this Department. However, Ministries/Department are impressed upon to follow strictly the prescribed procedure in this regard.

Pending cases against IAS, IPS Officers

2710. SHRI ANANTA SETHI:
CHAUDHARY HARMOHAN SINGH YADAV:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a large number of cases against IAS, IPS and other Allied Cadres Officers in different States and Union Territories are pending with the respective State Government's and Union Territory Administration;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the reasons why action is not being taken?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHRA RAJE): (a) to (c) In respect of members of IAS and IPS, for any misconduct committed while serving in connection with the affairs of the State Government or Union Territory, disciplinary action can be initiated only by the State Government or the Ministry of Home affairs respectively. The details and status of such cases are not required to be monitored centrally in the Department of Personnel and Training. As regards the Allied Cadre Officers, action can be initiated by the respective disciplinary authority. This information regarding the Allied Cadres is also not centrally maintained or monitored.
